

It's a Shame, It's a Crime
©2008 Dan Scanlan, Creative Commons

C

It's a shame, it's a crime, they should all be doing time

F G C

It's a shame it's a crime, they should all be doing time.

C

They're stealing from your grandchildren, And your great grandchildren, too

F G C

They're stealing from your cousin, Hell, they're stealing from you

C

They're stealing from the plumber, And robbing the corner store

F G C

They're stealing from the homeless, They're rotten to the core

C

The dollar that they loan you, it isn't even fact

F G B

But they'll throw you in the street if you don't pay it back.

C

They stealing from your embryo, And the kids that it might bear

F G C

They're stealing grandpa's nest egg, They're robbing the cupboard bare

C

They're stealing the last sip, Of the last cold glass of beer

F G C

They're stealing all the chips, In their poker game of fear

C

They're stealing your decisions, And filling you with lies

F G C

They're killing off your children with a war that never dies

C

Impeachment isn't good enough for their evil plague

F G C

They should be in handcuffs, kneeling at The Hague.

Ukulele

Baritone

